WOMAN'S PARTY WILL CELEBRATE PICKETS' RELEASE

The greatest suffrage "welcome home" in the history of "the cause" is planned by leaders of the Nationa Woman's Party on September 11, when six militant suffragettes, imprisoned at Occoquan, Va., under a thirty-day sentence for picketing, will be released and welcomed back to be released and welcomed out to Cameron House.

Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, of Philadelphia, one of the suffrage leaders, is arousing interest in the demonstration, which is expected to attract suffrage workers from all parts of the United States. There will be a dinner in the garden of Cameron Messes and suffrage speeches will be a dinner in the garden of Cameron Mouse and suffrage speeches will be made by prominent women.

In the meantime Miss Alice Paul, executive head of the party, anxiously awaits word today from Atterney O'Brien, who is at Falmouth, Mass., to confer with Justice Robb, of the District Court of Appeals, in an effort to have the justice again an effort to have the justice again receive an appeal from a Police Court keting sentence. Cameron House is crowded with Cameron House is crowded with would-be pickets from various parts of the country, who are simply await-ing the word to "go over the top" before they march out with their banners to brave a possible thirty-day sentence at Occoquan.

HEBREWS PLAN HELP FOR FIGHTING FORCES

Associations Open Third Annual Convention Here.

To plan welfare work for the men in Uncle Sam's fighting forces, representatives of thousands of Hebrews of the middle Atlantic States today ed the third annual convention of the Young Men's Hebrew and Kindred Associations at 1347 Pensylvania

The morning was spent in the regis-tration of delegates and visitors. The first business session of the convention was called to order by Alfred Schreier, of Norfolk, president of the federa-tion, at 1:30. Among the prominent tion, at 1:30. ### CONFECTIONERS LOSE CHEFS THROUGH WAR

The army draft has cut off the fancy cake supply of the people who live in the neighborhood of Eight-eanth street and Columbia road. They must go down town for their fancy cakes or do without.

At least two confectionery stores in that neighborhood have temporarily discontinued the sale of fancy cakes of all sorts. Their pastry chefs have been drafted and they can't find now chefs.
